FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Final Word in Wedding Photograph

BookSurge proudly announces the publication of Your Picture Perfect Wedding: A Bride's Personal Guide to Wedding Photography in the New Millennium by Galina Vitols and Mia D. Johnson

The wedding is over, the caterer has cleaned up, and the guests have gone home. There is one place where everyone turns for reminders of that precious day: the wedding album.

In Your Picture Perfect Wedding—a collaborative achievement by photographer Galina Vitols and author/trend columnist Mia Johnson—future brides and their families will find the most comprehensive and informative book ever written on how to obtain the best wedding photographer and wedding photography that money can buy.

This tome is THE source for learning on how to choose a photographer who fits in with a bride's individual, artistic preference and vision, and on how to recognize the 'best of the best' in wedding photojournalistic or artistic photography. Also covered are which captured moments that will be most appreciated five, ten, or even fifty years later, what the advantages in digital wedding photography are, and a necessary confrontation on what constitutes those unspoken, yet ever present 'hidden charges'.

Your Picture Perfect Wedding guarantees that after every bride takes in what Ms Vitols and Ms Johnson so freely share with them, that they will enter into this difficult search a fully informed consumer and a truly educated bride. This book is a necessary read for every bride, whether they are planning their first wedding or they just happen to find love the second time around.
