

Hank and Trish Bush

October 23, 2004

Hank and Trish met in Atlanta through mutual friends in 1998. Then he proposed while they were vacationing in Deer Valley, Utah. But when it came to tying the knot, Hank and Trish Bush chose a place close to home: Their own house of worship, downtown Miami's Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, which was founded in 1896 and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

"It was absolutely beautiful," Trish recalls. "The day was without incident. In fact, I would say it was perfect."

Afterward, wedding guests feasted on Caesar salad, sirloin of beef with chimichurri sauce, rigatoni with oven roasted tomatoes, wild mushrooms and grilled chicken at the nearby Miami City Club.

After a flawless wedding day, the couple is looking forward to an equally memorable honeymoon, which is planned for the spring.

Wedding gown: Melissa Sweet of Atlanta (also found in Saks Fifth Avenue)

Florist: Petunia Flowers

Ceremony location: Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Miami

Reception location: Miami City Club

Photographer: Galina Vitols, Upscale Photo, Miami

Cake designer/Baker: Ana Paz, Miami

